To
The District Land & Land Reforms Officer,
.....(All).

Sub : Over-The-Counter services at BL&LRO offices

It has come to the notice of the undersigned that few offices of BL&LRO/DL&LRO are discouraging common people to apply through the OTC services and insisting upon to apply online only. This is creating a great inconvenience to the common people, those who are not well adapted to online systems. It is not expected that each and every common people can access internet-enabled locations or cyber-cafes to apply for different services.

Hence, OTC services should be continued along with the different online services for receiving the application from the public till further orders.
